
Dashed line: perfect calibration. Shaded band: below the 0.50 chance floor for a two-option match.
Vertical segments join the two estimates for one stimulus; their length is the self-vs-auditor gap.